4-0 Motion Passed

An explanation regarding the passed budget was given of why the budget was passed and certain line items adjusted down from what was requested by some even though there is approximately $4 million in reserves. The answer given was that by allocating this budget, $600,000 of the reserves will need to be used. If the township consistently spends the reserves at this rate, there will not be any reserves within 6 years or less as costs rise.
